

The Warring Sides of the Trojan War (Map 1)

The Achaeans were generally from what we call Greece today and the western portion of the Aegean Sea. Exceptions include those contingents from Crete, Rhodes, and Cos. The Trojans and their allies were mostly from what we call Turkey (Asia Minor).